Quality Policy

Critical Link is committed to being a leader in embedded systems design by providing engineering services and products that satisfy customer needs and expectations in a manner that complies with applicable industry, legal, and regulatory requirements. Our business processes focus on achieving all applicable product and project requirements, as well as promoting continual improvement within the organization and with external providers key to our success.